Pollinators, are one of earths most valuable inhabitants! It is very supersizng how many people do not even think about the pollinators importance!

There is no doubt, all of humanity would be in dire straights without pollinators doing the very menial task of pollinating every flower on earth so, we may enjoy the fruits and vegetables of their labors. While pollinators such as bees, butterflies and humming birds go about their day gathering food for themselves, they are actually helping our food supply!

There is a great danger of loosing our pollinators because of all the chemicals being spread throughout earth. Bees and butterflies are being hit the hardest, especially the monarch butterfly! We cannot afford to loose these pollinators! It is very important to maintain projects which, provide the helping hand to pollinators through husbandry of the species.

The Project

The BUZZ tokens will be used to help struggling bee keepers and butterfly rearing and release projects. Working with youth programs to educate the next generation, the importance of pollinators and to supply learning materials for students.

Supply financial support for training programs which, will assist those wanting become registered beekeepers.

Supply financial support for training programs which, will assist those looking to learn butterfly rearing, environment health in the rearing areas, loose cocoon hanging and butterfly handling and release and butterfly identification and common dietary requirements.

Head project team leader: Penny Ewing

Value?

We prosper! You prosper! The BUZZ tokens are set in an initial pricing structure to allow the tokens to rise value for those looking for tokens to invest in!

There only 1,000,000,000 tokens minted and there will be no more!

The BUZZ project will retain 5,000,000 tokens to cover internal expenses and for growth.

100,000 will sell at 0.0010 XLM
100,000 will sell at 0.0025 XLM
100,000 will sell at 0.0050 XLM
100,000 will sell at 0.0075 XLM

100,000 will sell at 0.25 XLM
100,000 will sell at 0.50 XLM
100,000 will sell at 0.75 XLM
993,800,000 will sell at 1.00 XLM

Once all tokens have sold, there will be no more unless someone decides to sell theirs. We decided to ramp up the sales of the tokens so the earlier purchasers will have an opportunity to hold and grow their tokens. If you have held your tokens until, all 1.00 XLM tokens have sold, you will have a nice return on your investment if, you sell them higher.

This is not your average token! This token has value! Value has been such a rare commodity in the past!

The planet is valuable! People are valuable! Your projects and efforts to help both are valuable and we will give you something of value to create value!

Everyone dreams of a better world! Lets fix it now!!!

Donations

If you would like to make a donation without purchasing any tokens, your donation will be gladly accepted with much appreciation! Please let us know when you send so, we can thank you personally!
